Welcome to 10104 Parkwood Terrace, Bethesda -- A slate and riverstone walk-way leads you to the front door. You'll immediately notice blend of Mid-Century architecture with tasteful expansions -- upgraded for today's quality-conscious homeowner. One of those homes you've been waiting for -- so much to offer: gleaming hardwood floors; new kitchen renovation featuring high-end granite cooks' island, stainless appliances, new state-of-the art 5-burner induction cooktop; built-in microwave oven drawer, paneled fridge, and more.

Butterflies, bumblebees, and hummingbirds zip about among this property's plantings: Front Yard: Landscaping includes Crape Myrtle, camelias; mature climbing roses and shrub roses, Boxwood, Rosemary, Iris, tall grasses, sages, thyme, and more. Back and side yards include Lenten Rose, Fern-covered slope, dogwood, camelia trees, winterberry, Thread-leaf maple (30 plus years); kousa dogwood, mature camelia limelight hydrangea, flowering plum, mature azaleas in pinks, purples, and whites.. 180 degree turn and you're right in the center and within walking distance of Rock Creek Forest, Grosvenor Metro, Beach Drive and its bike path; Strathmore Hall Center for the Arts; Black Market restaurant, White Flint Shopping Center, Garrett Park train station; Old Town Kensington, and downtown Bethesda.
