Understanding Whom Real Estate Agents Represent

Before you decide to sell or buy or rent a home you need to consider the following information:

Agents Who Represent the Seller

Seller's Agent: A seller's agent works for the real estate company that lists and markets the property for the sellers or landlords, and exclusively represents the sellers or landlords. That means that he or she may assist the buyer or tenant in purchasing or renting the property, but his or her duty of loyalty is only to the sellers or landlords. The seller pays the seller's agent's fees as specified in a written listing agreement.

Cooperating Agent: A cooperating agent works for a real estate company different from the company for which the seller's agent works. The cooperating agent can assist a buyer or tenant in purchasing or renting a property, but his or her duty of loyalty is only to the sellers or landlords. The cooperating agent's fee is paid by the sellers or landlords through the seller's agent's company.

Agents Who Represent the Buyer

Presumed Buyer's Agent (no written agreement): When a person goes to a real estate agent for assistance in finding a home to buy or rent, the agent is presumed to be representing the buyer and can show the buyer properties that are not listed by the agent's real estate company. A presumed buyer's agent may not make or prepare an offer or negotiate a sale for the buyer. The buyer does not have an obligation to pay anything to the presumed agent.

If for any reason the buyer does not want the agent to represent him or her as a presumed agent, either initially or at any time, the buyer can decline or terminate a presumed agency relationship simply by saying so.

Buyer's Agent (by written agreement): A buyer or tenant may enter into a written contract with a real estate agent which provides that the agent will represent the buyer or tenant in locating a property to buy or rent. The agent is then known as the buyer's agent. That agent assists the buyer in evaluating properties and preparing offers, and negotiates in the best interests of the buyer or tenant. The agent's fee is paid according to the written agreement between the agent and the buyer or tenant. If you as a buyer or tenant wish to have an agent represent you exclusively, you must enter into a written buyer agency agreement.

Dual Agents

The possibility of dual agency arises when the buyer's agent and the seller's agent both work for the same real estate company, and the buyer is interested in property listed by that company. The real estate company, or broker, is called the "dual agent". Dual agents do not act exclusively in the interests of either the seller or buyer, or landlord or tenant, and therefore cannot give undivided loyalty to either party. There may be a conflict of interest because the interests of the seller and buyer may be different or adverse.

If both seller and buyer, or landlord and tenant, agree to dual agency by signing a Consent For Dual Agency form, then the real estate company (the "dual agent") will assign one agent to represent the seller or landlord (the seller's "intra-company agent") and another agent to represent the buyer or tenant (the buyer's "intra-company agent"). Intra-company agents may provide the same services to their clients as exclusive seller's or buyer's agents, including advising their clients as to price and negotiation strategy, provided the clients have both consented to be represented by dual agency.

If either party does not agree to dual agency, the real estate company may withdraw the agency agreement for that particular property with either the buyer or seller, or both. If the seller's agreement is terminated, the seller must then either represent him or herself or arrange to be represented by an agent from another real estate company. If the buyer's agreement is terminated, the buyer or tenant may choose to enter into a written buyer agency agreement with an agent from a different company. Alternatively, the buyer or tenant may choose not to be represented by an agent of his or her own but simply to receive assistance from the seller's agent, from another agent in that company, or from a cooperating agent from another company.

No matter what type of agent you choose to work with, you have the following rights and responsibilities in selling or buying or renting property:

>Real estate agents are obligated by law to treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly. They must exercise reasonable care and diligence and maintain the confidentiality of clients. They must not discriminate in the offering of properties; they must promptly present each written offer or counteroffer to the other party; and they must answer questions truthfully.

>Real estate agents must disclose all material facts that they know or should know relating to a property. An agent's duty to maintain confidentiality does not apply to the disclosure of material facts about a property.

>All agreements with real estate agents should be in writing and should explain the duties and obligations of the agent. The agreement should explain how the agent will be paid and any fee-sharing agreements with other agents.

>You have the responsibility to protect your own interests. You should carefully read all agreements to make sure they accurately reflect your understanding. A real estate agent is qualified to advise you on real estate matters only. If you need legal or tax advise, it is your responsibility to consult a licensed attorney or accountant.

Any complaints about a real estate agent may be filed with the Real Estate Commission at 500 North Calvert Street, Baltimore, MD 21202. (410) 230-6200.

1. SHORT SALE DEFINED: A Short Sale occurs when the Seller's net proceeds of sale are insufficient to pay off the liens on the Property and the Seller is unable to bring sufficient funds to settlement to satisfy the holders of the liens (Creditors). As such, Seller must receive approval from Creditors to accept Seller's net proceeds of sale in exchange for releasing the liens.

2. SHORT SALE CONSIDERATIONS:

A. Credit and Tax Considerations: A Short Sale may adversely affect the Seller's credit score. If Creditors agree to a Short Sale, the debt may not be forgiven entirely which requires the Seller to pay the difference as a personal obligation. If the lien is insured by FHA or guaranteed by VA, Seller may be required to pay the difference. A Short Sale in which a portion of the debt is forgiven may be considered a relief of debt and may be treated as income for tax purposes. Seller is advised to consult independent legal counsel and a professional tax advisor prior to entering into a contract that may result in a Short Sale.

B. Options: Seller acknowledges there may be options other than a Short Sale, such as loan modification, revised repayment plan, refinance, or entry into a lender's loan mitigation program. Seller is advised to explore all available options with Creditors.

3. SELLER ACKNOWLEDGMENT: Seller acknowledges that a sale of this property may result in a Short Sale. Seller agrees to cooperate with Broker and Creditors to obtain information regarding the amount owed on the Property. Seller shall complete all necessary authorization and release forms required by Creditors.

4. APPROVAL PROCESS: Obtaining approval of Creditors for a Short Sale involves documentation similar to that required for the original loan application. The Seller must generally establish that the Seller is financially incapable of paying the Creditors. The Seller agrees to promptly submit to Creditors all requested documentation, including but not limited to W-2 forms, bank statements, tax returns, hardship letter stating the reason the Creditors should consider granting a Short Sale, and other requested financial documents disclosing income, assets, and debt. The Seller acknowledges that Creditors' approval of a Short Sale may take weeks or months to obtain, if approved at all. Broker has no control over Creditors' decisions.

5. AUTHORITY TO DISCLOSE EXISTENCE OF SHORT SALE: Seller is advised that prospective Buyers, Brokers and Agents are entitled to be advised that this Property is or may be a Short Sale and is subject to third party approval. Seller hereby authorizes Broker to include the disclosure of this information in the Multiple Listing Service, any advertising, as well as in any contract of sale.

Disclaimer: Seller acknowledges that Broker cannot provide legal, tax, or financial advice. Broker may facilitate the transaction through communication with Creditors; however, Broker will not negotiate the terms and conditions of the Short Sale on behalf of the Seller. Seller or Seller's legal/financial representative is solely responsible for negotiating the payoff of debts. Seller agrees to hold harmless Broker, its officers, Agents, and employees from any liability that may arise from broker's facilitation of this transaction.
